ATTENTION ALL BIDDERS

- Please read the following statement in its entirety regarding changes being made to the specifications as well as the date and time of the Submission Deadline (Bid Opening)
- Please note this means that if you have already submitted your response, you will need to re-submit using the updated copy of the Original Invitation that will be included with this addendum
- Please mark on page 37 the acknowledgement of the following addendum

ADDENDUM NO. 1

- Specifications (pg. 33-36)
- Insurance Additional Requirements (pg. 22-23)
- Contractor Safety (pg. 24)

Due to these being omitted, JCPS is publishing the updated Original Invitation which now includes all required information. You will need to submit using this updated copy.

Due to this, JCPS is moving the Opening Time and Date to Tuesday, November 18 at 11:00 a.m. EST.

Each vendor will be required to submit their response using the updated Original Invitation that includes all documentation. If a vendor has already sent in their response, they will be required to submit again. Their updated submission will replace the previous one.
